From the Washington DC area

Baker is about 120 miles (2 1/2 hours) from Washington.

- Take I-66 West to I-81 South (towards Roanoke).
- Continue on I-81 south for about 2 miles.
- Take exit 296. (Note: If you want to stop in Strasburg to eat or visit antique shops, take exit 298. Turn left on Route 11 and follow signs into town.)
- Take Route 55 West about 20 miles to Wardensville, WV.
- Turn left on Route 259 South. (Drive slowly, Wardensville is a speed trap!)
- Follow Route 259 South about 10 miles to Baker.
- Turn left on Route 259 South and go 1 mile until you see the Lost River Crossing sign on your right.

From Harrisonburg, Virginia

Baker is about 1 hour from Harrisonburg.

- From I-81 North, take exit 257 (Timberville, Broadway).
- Take Route 259 West to Timberville.
- At the traffic light across from Broadway Motors, turn left to continue on 259 West.
- Follow Route 259 to West Virginia.
- Pass through Mathias, Lost City, and Lost River.
- Stay on Route 259 until you see the Lost River Crossing sign on the left.
